

I don't understand your website, I have been wandering around it for a while now. Radio interference from Yakima's New Northwest Broadcasters' am station, KBBO, has made it VERY difficult to use my telephone and I had to buy a filter to use my internet but I still get disconnected constantly. I have called them four times but get no response, is this allowable??